THE EVENT

The Library Foundation of Hillsboro has selected two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning Journalist and Author, Nicholas Kristof, to speak at our 31st Author Event, on Saturday, March 4, 2023.

While living on four continents, reporting on six and traveling to more than 150 countries, Kristof has been christened by other reporters as the reporter's reporter. Kristof and his wife, also a New York Times journalist, have written five best-selling books: Tightrope, Half the Sky, A Path Appears, China Wakes, and Thunder from the East.

After joining the New York Times in 1984, Kristof served as a correspondent in Los Angeles, Hong Kong, Beijing, and Tokyo.

As a speaker, Nicholas Kristof always keeps audiences on the edge of their seats with his moving storytelling and incomparable insights into the events that shape our world.

Audiences are captivated by his global adventures and leave inspired to drive change, take on challenges, and make a difference.

WHY SPONSOR US?

COMMUNITY EXPOSURE

- 200 guests who represent a cross-section of the Hillsboro community and its leaders in government, education, technology, and business
- Direct-mail invitations to more than 600 people
- City of Hillsboro City Views newsletter, which reaches 48,000 homes and businesses
- The Foundation and Library websites
- The Foundation and Library social media sites, event posters in the libraries, and throughout the community
- Readerboards at both libraries (attendance is approximately 70,000 people monthly)

COMMUNITY GOODWILL

Knowing you played an important part in enhancing the libraries that provide critical services to our growing community. Hillsboro's libraries are the fifth largest and busiest in Oregon, with patrons checking out nearly three million items annually.

TAX BENEFITS

All donations to the Library Foundation of Hillsboro, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, are deductible on your organization's federal tax return to the extent allowed by law.

NETWORKING

Although people attend our author events for the outstanding speakers, it's not uncommon to make business contacts as well. Hillsboro's business and government leaders are generally in attendance!

THE LIBRARY FOUNDATION OF HILLSBORO

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Library Foundation of Hillsboro is to foster and reflect community commitment to education and the pursuit of knowledge by providing access and opportunities, through advocacy and financial support of the Hillsboro Public Library; and to educate, encourage, enrich, and enlighten the population by enhancing collections, technology, services, and facilities of the Hillsboro Public Library.

HISTORY

Established in 1989, the Library Foundation of Hillsboro has sought private support to enhance library resources, services, programs, and facilities. It promotes the Hillsboro Public Library as a unique educational, informational, and recreational focal point for our community. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, separate and independent of city government.

Director, Hillsboro Public Library

All great communities have excellent libraries, and all excellent libraries have advocates. In Hillsboro, the most active of these is The Library Foundation of Hillsboro. This organization's primary purpose is to provide financial support to the library for items not able to be funded through the normal city budget process. The Hillsboro Public Library serves as a community gathering place where patrons of all ages and ethnic backgrounds will find educational and entertaining material to enhance their lifestyles. The Foundation is committed to providing the necessary support to ensure this will continue to happen.
